

THE ONLY DISTINCTIVELY NEGRO CITY IN AMERICA.

FOUNDED BY E.P.McCABE, OCT. 22, 1890.

Do you Want all These ?

Then Cast Your Lot With Us & Make Your Home
in Langston City.

Do you ask why? We will tell you. Langston City is a Negro city, and we are proud of the fact. Her city officer are all colored. Her teachers are colored. Her public schools furnish thorough educational advantages to nearly two hundred colored children. The country is as fertile as ever was moistened by nature's falling tears, or kissed by heaven's sunshine. Here, too, is found a genial climate—about like that of southern Tennessee or northern Mississippi—a climate admirably adapted to the wants of the Negro from the southern states. A land of diversified crops, where there need be no such thing as a total failure. A land where every staple crop of both north and south can be raised with

One of the finest fruit growing countries in the union. A land where a few dollars judiciously invested in real estate will yield returns in the future that cannot be estimated.

Do you want to build for the future? If so you can do no better than to invest a few dollars in Oklahoma soil. It does not matter whether you contemplate coming here at once or not. Real estate is the basis of all wealth. There is nothing in which money can be so safely invested. Do you wish to build for the future? If you do, you cannot do anything that will be more to your advantage than a small investment in Langston City property. This property combines everything that it needs to commend it to homeseekers or investors, viz: Reasonable prices, easy payments, steady and rapid increase in value, sure returns, absolute safety, good society, church privileges, school privileges, and last but not least, absolute political liberty and the enjoyment of every right and privilege every other man enjoys under the constitution of the country. What more do you want? Young men, if you will save the money that many of you now squander and invest it in Langston City property, ten years from now you will be independent.

Remember it is not a picnic we are inviting you to, but to join hands with us in an active and earnest effort to better our conditions and to open to the race new avenues through which they may obtain more of the good things of life.

In another column will be found an accurate plat of the townsite. All that portion north of Drexel Boulevard and west of Michigan Avenue has recently been platted and put on the market, and is known as the first addition. With the exception of perhaps a dozen, all the lots front on Washington boulevard, and all those lying south of it are sold. For business purposes, all things considered, the cheapest and best property now offered is that on Drexel boulevard. The post office is located on lot 7, in block 4; the office of the Langston City Herald is on lot 10, block 3; the First Baptist church is in block 78; and the public school is in block 76, as shown in the plat.

Before the first of February $3,000 worth of machinery will be on the ground for the grist mill and cotton gin which is to be located on the site, shown on the plat. Plans have been drawn and work will commence on the hotel building, which, when completed, will cost from $2,000 to $2,500; it will be located in block 69, as shown in the plat.

All the lots which remain unsold to this time are good ones—there is not a rough or bad one in the entire number. Washington boulevard is the leading street in the city at present, being located exactly in the center of the two cities. Lots can be obtained at reasonable prices and on easy terms. In sending in the names of subscribers, ALWAYS GIVE THE STREET AND NUMBER so there will be no difficulty in finding the right man.

In the larger cities many papers do not reach the subscriber for want of proper direction.

DEMOCRATIC APPEAL

The National Committee Appeals For Best Efforts to Secure the Election.

New York, Nov. 6.—The following address "to the people of the United States" has been issued by the democratic national committee:

The presidential campaign will soon end. It is right and necessary that we should stop any further discussion of the tariff. We have heard a few words to the effect that we have so many men, women or children in the United States who are not affected by our tariff laws. They enter into and regulate the expenses of daily life of every individual. Since 1925 less than 1,000 men in this country have been, by reason of the individual or corporate wealth under their control, the masters of our tariff system. Their power has been sufficient to enforce the continuance and increase in times of peace of taxes on necessities of life, originally imposed in a time of war only because of actual needs of the government.

Under the system of war taxes thus continued the conditions of life in this country have essentially changed. The wealth which has been largely distributed among the lower classes engaged in industrial life, has concentrated in the hands of the few. These have accumulated fortunes unequalled in any European country. They have been able to extend their power to the world. The masses of the people who toil in the fields, or gain their bread in the rural districts, or in towns and cities, by the labor of their hands, are being crushed and are wearily looking to your united action for relief. You know that this class controls and uses the machinery of the government, and that it is combined for world purposes and actually ruling the republican party. The federal office holders are part of its machinery. Its methods of action are in latitudes of luxury and waste and the corrupt use of money. In no country in the whole world, in which the people have the right to vote, has a purpose to be carried out so effectively and so completely as in our plainly shown. The enormous sums gathered in broad daylight from the contributions of thousands, the characters of the men who have been elected to office, the character of their vulgar speech, it will do the most good and the prostitution of the public sense to the lowest political work in daily society. You are now in the presence of the five spectators of this scene. The people of the state of New York, remembering the high character and public service of the highest character of the country, are now in the presence of a guarantee of a wiser, purer and better government, will rally to his support. He will win overwhelming victory in his well beloved state. The farmers of Indiana, cheated more than once by the same party, are determined to be once again to control that state, will show that the beneficiaries of federal legislation cannot be elected by fraud, knavery and purchase. Obstinately they will vote for the man who has secured the electoral vote of that state. The substitution of the name of K. K. K. for the name of the party attempt to defeat their will by open bribery and the basest elements of their population, will teach the thousand contributors on the day of election a lesson well worth remembering. The wrongdoings of Connecticut, the wrongdoings of their rightful state government by the methods now sought to be practiced against Grover Cleveland, will remember their wrongdoings to the people of Indiana, Delaware and West Virginia, resenting the attempt now being made to corrupt and intimidate many of their number, will follow their

You will bear in mind that you owe to the few men who maintain the present corrupt system the tariff and the prohibition and the military threat of the force bill. That was a most republican partisan scheme. Under it the state could have used the federal land and employed an army of federal officers, paid for out of the public treasury, to control the usual presidential election and all elections for members of congress. Failing in this plan they have tried their own device, and have raised the campaign fund. President Hayes is in favor of any method of carrying these elections which that dangerous bill supplies. In silence of the republican leaders who are against the campaign fund, not we are sure, culture you.

You must on November 8 make a choice which will vitally affect the interests of your country. The individual vote of each citizen is of supreme importance. Cleveland, president, the highest executive, controlling motive and rule of his administrative action and of the whole democratic and independent vote united in a single ballot will be the president and the cabinet member and public office will be secured regarded as a public trust. The civil service will not be dragged against its will through the mire of nominating conventions, but the independent will be the result of the culture and commerce, growing steadily by side, under wiser laws, will greatly increase our national prosperity. Our manufacturers will have peace with population and a more abundant and greater measure of prosperity. The working man in the field and in the shop will find that his wants are more taken into account and his reasonable demands more readily listened to. His satisfaction will be able to die's law (Grover Cleveland)

Grover Cleveland is one of you—each in his election precinct and election district—to help without ceasing for Grover Cleveland, Adlai B. Stevenson and for good government under a democratic administration. On day of election, vote for all the candidates, and the duties of that day. Protect your respective polls against bribery, fraud and intimidation. No balance of authority empower anyone to interfere with the law. The right of the people is to have a kind sense of you a force of public opinion and power of almost lawful law which will ensure bold to strict account the men who are now endeavoring to defeat the fair expression of your will.

The right of the people is to have a kind sense of you a force of public opinion and power of almost lawful law which will ensure bold to strict account the men who are now endeavoring to defeat the fair expression of your will.

and make it an overwhelming victory.

REPUBLICAN CIRCULAR

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The following circular was issued from republic headquarters:

need for action: "The answer to the republican campaign from various sources intimations that the serve coup of campaign lies for instance the before the election is very profligate and under the circumstances it is not surprising that presenting what purports to be facts from western states for publication in the east the reverse of publication in the west is intended to be conducted, and the result intended effect at the last moment of inducing a large number of men who are always lying and anxious to be on the winning side to be able to claim that the republicans give over the west bodily to the Weaver party. Carefully prepared tables will be published that shall prove their assertions and the tables will be so arranged that the truth is a question. Republicans all over the should be prepared for just this line of attack and should discredit all claims and more sensational the story the it should be discredited. The Irish lean best is to have their careful worth and several prominent Irish-American and reported facts and their political chartiment himself will be quoted as having at last moment turned to the apostle of the interests and disordered protection and the present and the future of the militant current."

Be on your guard. Believe only that which is consonant with common sense or supported by unimpeachable testimony, and do not let the conviction that has come by honest thought rule as your conscience dictates and you believe to be right.

You have the assurance of this committee based upon confidential and reliable information all over the country, that the nomination of the republican party will be elected by a constitutional majority that shall be beyond

Ex-Premier Mersier, of Quebec, charged with defalcations, was acquitted by the jury. His acquittal caused a scene of excitement, a number of sympathizers being extremely abundant.

NOTICE:—In purchasing lots in Langston City purchasers can pay to my duly authorized agents the amount of the first payment on any lot. All subsequent payments must be sent to Guthrie as stated in the application to purchase and in the contracts which are sent from this office to the purchaser when a sale is made. No sale is binding until the application is received and approved by the owner of the land, as all property offered is subject to previous sale, and the owners reserves the right to change prices any time without notice.
